

I am definitely opposed to cell phone use during flight. As a flight attendant and sometimes passenger I would find this very annoying to have to listen to someone else's conversation. I have had many comments from passengers already stating that they feel the same. Please don't allow this to happen.